Labor Board Probes Dock Worker Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—A board of labor relations experts appointed by President Kennedy goes into emergency session here today in a last-ditch effort to settle the Atlantic and Gulf Coast dock strike.

Kennedy said in appointing the board that the 26-day-old strike is "doing intolerable injury to the national welfare" and disrupting vital commerce in the Free World.

Kennedy indicated that if the board's efforts failed, he would ask Congress to force an end to the strike of 60,000 longshoremen that has crippled shipping in ports from Maine to Texas.

The head of the board, Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., told newsmen:

"I have never seen a labor case that could not be settled by good-faith negotiations between the party litigants."

Thomas Gleason, executive vice president and chief negotiator for the striking AFL-CIO International Longshoremen's Association, said union representatives were ready to meet with the board today.

Alexander Chopin, chief industry negotiator, said he had "nothing to say at this time."

Chopin is head of the New York Shipping Association, which represents 145 shipping and stevedoring companies. Contract terms reached here between the IILA and the association traditionally set a pattern for settlements in other ports on the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts.

Kennedy appointed the emergency board Wednesday shortly after Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz reported collapse of the negotiations.

Named as mediators along with Morse were James J. Healy, associated professor of industrial relations at Harvard University, and Theodore W. Kheel, New York City lawyer and veteran labor dispute arbitrator and impartial chairman of management-labor relations in various industries. Morse served on the War Labor Board during World War II.

Kennedy asked Morse to report back to him no later than next Monday.

Firemen reported all were burned out, including second floor apartments, and only walls remained standing.

Fifty firemen manning eight rigs joined the two-hour fight before the blaze finally was brought under control. Apparatus from Cambridge, Milaca and Elk River aided the local department.

U.N. Awaits Full Surrender From Tshombe

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Katanga's elusive President Moïse Tshombe, reportedly ready to abandon the tactics which for 30 months frustrated Congo unity plans, was due back in Elisabethville today for talks to complete Katanga's surrender. Awaiting Tshombe were firm demands for unopposed entry for U.N. troops into Kolwezi, his last stronghold 150 miles northwest of Elisabethville.

A spokesman at U.N. headquarters in New York said Tshombe would probably meet with George Sherry, the No. 2 U.N. representative in Elisabethville. The chief U.N. representative, Eliud Mathu, is reported ill. The threat of mass destruction in Kolwezi, where Tshombe's supporters have mined industrial and power facilities for destruction, has kept a U.N. combat column some miles southeast of the mining center.

Once the U.N. entry into Kolwezi is arranged, a U.N. spokesman said, talks can begin with Tshombe on arrangements to put U.N. Secretary-General U Thant's plan for Congo reunification into full effect.

$5 Billion Requested for Foreign Aid

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy asked Congress today for nearly $5 billion in foreign aid money, declaring it would bolster U.S. security while helping nations that are willing to help themselves.

Last year he requested about the same amount and got about $1 billion less.

In his budget message, the President estimated that actual foreign aid expenditures for the fiscal year starting July 1 will total $3.75 billion—a drop of $100 million from the current fiscal year. The remaining $1.25 billion would be kept in reserve for aid programs on which bills do not become due this fiscal year.

The reason for the $100 million drop: a $200 million boost in economic assistance will be more than offset by a $300 million cutback in overseas arms deliveries, which hit a peak this year.

Focusing on selective aid to self-helping, developing countries which can make the most use of it, Kennedy said bigger outlays for economic development loans and $1 billion for the Alliance for Progress program for Latin America will be accompanied by a decline in outright grants, or gifts.

The President's $4,945,000,000 budget requests for fiscal year 1964—$3,465,000,000 in economic aid and $1,480,000,000 in military assistance sounded the opening gong in what is expected to be another round in the annual executive-legislative tussles over the politically unpopular program.

Kennedy termed the sums vital to the U.S. security and essential to American commitments and purposes abroad. He promised increased efficiency in administering the program, stressed reforms by aid receiving nations and spoke of growing aid efforts by other Western countries. "We are steadfast in our determination to promote the security of the Free World, not only through our commitment to join in the defense of freedom, but also through our pledge to contribute to the economic and social development of less privileged, independent peoples," Kennedy said.

Polish Chief Backs Nikita

BERLIN (AP)—Polish Communist chief Wladyslaw Gomulka gave full support today to Soviet Premier Khrushchev in the Moscow-Peking dispute over Communist policy. But Gomulka asked that the argument be removed from the world's gaze.

Gomulka told the East German Communist party's sixth congress in East Berlin that Khrushchev is calling the tune correctly for the world Communist movement. "The Soviet Union is the most important, most decisive force in the Socialist camp," Gomulka said.

He echoed Khrushchev's call Wednesday for the Chinese to stop their public name-calling.

Khrushchev Waves Over Berlin Wall

By TOM OCHILTREE

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev today visited communism's bleak and hated wall dividing Berlin and gazed thoughtfully for a moment at the American flag fluttering over nearby Checkpoint Charlie.

Standing at the point where U.S. and Soviet tanks confronted each other in the Berlin crisis of October 1961, he waved cheerfully to people in West Berlin.

The premier made his excursion to the wall at midday after hearing Wladyslaw Gomulka, Polish Communist chief, hail him as the man who saved the world from nuclear catastrophe during the Cuban crisis.

Sales Tax Offered If State Needs Additional Income

By ADOLPH JOHNSON

ST. PAUL (AP) — If Minnesota requires new taxes, a sales levy offers a "strong possibility," the Governor's Tax Study Committee said today.

"The sales tax with income tax credit offers probably the most effective method with the least disruption of existing taxes," said the report, submitted by the group's chairman, Dean Paul V. Grambsch of the University of Minnesota school of business.

The summary held that a sales levy also would afford a better balance between income and excise-type taxes and put Minnesota in line with a larger number of other states.

The committee nowhere specifically recommended a sales tax nor did it say whether additional revenues are or will be needed. The group did suggest consideration of a modified gross income tax in combination with the present net income levy, and of a business receipts, or activities tax.

The report asked elimination of taxes now yielding the state $60 million annually and called for reform of what it termed a presently haphazard tax system.

While conceding that tax reform, to be effective, would entail some new levies, the summary made no suggestions on replacements of the taxes suggested for elimination.

Estimates were that a 1 per cent general tax would yield $50 million a year. The report said the tax credit plan would remove any regressive feature of a sales tax, adding that a $4 credit for each 1 per cent of tax would make the levy proportional for incomes up to about $10,000.

For example, if a $1 per person income tax credit against a 1 per cent sales tax was allowed, the allowance for a family of five would be $20. If the sales tax was 3 per cent, the deduction would be $60.

The committee said a sales tax might also help local communities, in that the state could levy an added half of 1 per cent and distribute that to reduce community property tax payments.

The report cited that Minnesota burdens property with taxes higher than those levied in any but five eastern and New England States and that the state income tax also is high, especially for those with incomes between $5,000 and $12,000.

Taxes the group would eliminate together with the annual amounts they now yield are:

State property, except for teacher retirement, $15 million; personal property on business inventories, $10 million; the $10 head tax required of all filing income tax returns, $2 million; personal property, on farm machinery and livestock, $15 million; and surtaxes on individual and corporate income levies, $15 million.

The iron tax situation was entered as a dark cloud, the committee predicting that receipts would shrink more in the next decade and with income unable to make up the deficit unless production of that low-grade ore is stepped up many times over.

Income	$ 86,900,000,000
Spending	98,802,000,000
Deficit	11,902,000,000
National debt at year's end	315,604,000,000

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy proposed today an unprecedented $98.8-billion budget keyed to deficit-cutting tax cuts which he said would spark the nation toward full employment, production and purchasing power.

Kennedy's spending program for the year starting July 1 would top even the highest of wartime budgets, $98.3 billion in 1944-45, and shoot the public debt to a record $315.6 billion.

Nonetheless, he insisted it was shaped to put new life into the economy and insure "efficient and frugal" conduct of the government.

In a message sending his mid-term budget to Congress, Kennedy acknowledged the $13.5-billion, three-year tax cutting plan he unveiled earlier this week would at first add red ink to federal finances. He estimated the deficit would rise from the $8.8 billion now anticipated this year to $11.9 billion.

Recommendations Kennedy sent to Capitol Hill included:

—Over-all defense spending of $55.4 billion, up $2.4 billion from the current year; emphasis on a strong retaliatory force, flexible conventional forces, better air and missile defenses.

—Space programs costing $4.2 billion, an increase of $1.8 billion; manned space flight efforts to get most of the total, with the goal of getting a man to the moon.

—Foreign aid totaling $4,945,000,000 with special attention for countries willing to help themselves.

—Another bid for medical care for the aged financed through Social Security taxes; a new request for a Cabinet-level Department of Urban Affairs. Detailed recommendations will be made later for aid to education, farm and other programs.

For peacetime, the anticipated $11.9-billion deficit would be second only to the $12.4 billion incurred under former President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1958-59. But Kennedy argued a 1963-64 deficit is unavoidable, even at the present level of taxes. The choice, he said, lies between accepting a "chronic deficit of inertia due to cross over into the West."

Size of Budget Raises Furor In Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's budget sailed into stormy congressional seas today. There was a clamor that unless some spending was jettisoned, its cargo of tax cuts would never reach port intact.

Much of a chorus of alarm about the budget's deficit—practically drowning out other comment—came from Democrats, with Republicans adding their denunciations.

"Incredible," "Ridiculous," "Entirely too big" were some of the harsher comments of critics. Many argued that the estimated $11.9-billion deficit would badly hurt the President's tax reduction proposals.

GOP leaders generally gave the budget a blistering reception. Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, House Republican leader, said the $98.8-billion budget "makes a mockery of the administration's brave talk of letting the taxpayer keep more of his own money."

"What the taxpayer thinks he will save under Kennedy's proposed reduction will be taken away from him either by so-called tax reform or by an increase in the cost of living," he added. "Either way, the taxpayer looks like a sure loser in the end."

The GOP Senate leader, Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, called the budget incredible.

"We are told the New Frontier is going to get over its chronic deficits by having a deficit so big that the nation will enjoy rapid growth and the jobless will commence returning to work. In other words, the best way to correct mistakes is to make bigger ones."

California Woman Stops Freight Train

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — A woman motorist drove half a mile on a railroad track, then got stuck in a switch and delayed a 100-car freight train.

Police said the woman told them: "I thought this was a road."

She was not cited.

Big Reclamation Program Asked

WASHINGTON (AP) — A reclamation construction program of $33,618,182 for the next fiscal year was proposed today by President Kennedy.

Moscow-Peking Rift Widened

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

BERLIN (AP) — The world Communist movement is in trouble and its leaders are alarmed. The current congress of Communist leaders in East Berlin can only widen the rift between Peking and Moscow.

The alarm showed through Premier Khrushchev's major speech Wednesday. His bombast, his boasts of coming Soviet superiority, all seemed just to be window dressing.

What frightens the Communists? It is the prospect of polarization of authority — two Communist seats of power instead of one, with the world movement ripped apart.

Even Fidel Castro, the newest addition to the ranks of Red leaders, seems to be leaning in the direction of the Chinese deviation these days. He could influence many a Latin-American Communist to do likewise.

Castro, annoyed since Khrushchev suddenly yanked away his hope for nuclear weapons in October, chose the day of Khrushchev's big speech to denounce the Communist division and issue a fiery call to revolution all over Latin America. His attitude had a Chinese sound.

Castro likely is not alone in his impatience. Khrushchev's cautious policy, while it may be good for the Soviet Union, leaves many a Communist party out on a limb, looking forward to long years of serving Soviet interests without concrete rewards. The more reckless, belligerent Chinese policy likely would suit many in the world movement much better.

But Premier Khrushchev told the Chinese Communists Wednesday that if they will not listen to his logic, they will have to go their own way. From the looks on the faces of the Red Chinese delegation, Peking might consider doing just that.

Khrushchev rejected Peking's idea of a meeting of world Red leaders on Chinese terms. If the Chinese want to talk about ending the dispute, says Khrushchev, they first must stop the name-calling in public. It has been going on for a long time now and is rising in violence.

Khrushchev accused the Chinese of wanting to spread communism by war, without regard for the widespread destruction that course might bring. There are other ways, says the Soviet leader, and there should not be resort to arms even in a revolutionary movement if the seizure of power can be achieved less riskily.

The Chinese don't agree that both sides will suffer catastrophe in nuclear war. There are three quarters of a billion Chinese; Mao Tse-tung contends plenty of them will be left after the United States and the U.S.S.R. toss bombs back and forth.

Helen Hayes Says Movies Are in Trouble

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Helen Hayes says motion pictures are in "an era of terrible trouble" because Hollywood has lost touch with public taste.

"If Hollywood is still in the Tennessee Williams era, the rest of the country isn't," the famed stage star said Wednesday.

"Hollywood went all arty and then went into the grim, Italian phase," she said. "Now it's simply in an era of terrible trouble."

Miss Hayes is here to appear in a play.

Dollar Value of Support Payments

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Millionaire shoe manufacturer Harry Karl says he's opposed to doubling support payments for his three children because they don't know the value of a dollar.

His ex-wife actress Marie McDonald, wants the payments raised from $750 to $1,500 a month.

Karl testified in Superior Court Wednesday that their adopted 12-year-old daughter, Denise, once bought $2,500 worth of clothes even though she wears uniforms at boarding school. He said their adopted son, Harmon, 12, once signed for a $37 golfing fee.

Karl, now married to actress Debbie Reynolds, was twice married to Miss McDonald. Their last divorce was in 1956.

In addition to adopting two children, Miss McDonald bore Karl a daughter, Tina Marie, now 6.

9 new ways to improve your home with flameless electric heat

Here's why it's smart to consider electric heat for remodeling, finishing and other projects

Heat an amusement room completely and evenly with compact, electric baseboard units. Offered in many types, sizes and capacities, all with switch-thermostat controls . . . all easy, fast and economical to install.

Heat, light, ventilate a new basement or upper bath, all with one ceiling-recessed electric unit like this. Switch controls 3-way action to provide instant warmth, exhaust air, provide bright illumination or all 3.

End ice build-up, water damage with electric cable that keeps gutters, downspouts open and free-flowing in coldest weather. Easy to install, costs pennies to operate, actually pays for itself over the years.

Add months of patio living with an outdoor radiant heater installed on canopy, house overhang or its own decorative frame. Also, swimming pool owners can extend period of pool use with an electric heater.

Protect car, garage when temperatures drop low with a light, compact, portable electric heater. Keep it handy; use only when and where it's needed. Or, keep entire area above freezing with wall or ceiling unit.

Melt snow, stop ice from forming with electric matting installed in any new drive or walkway you may add. Works in both concrete and asphalt. You use only when needed. Ends snow shoveling forever.

Get more pleasure from your enclosed porch. Modernize for year 'round use. Weatherize with storm shutters or thermal glass, insulate walls and ceiling, and install electric baseboard units, or ceiling panel.

Prevent drafts near exterior doors with a thermostatically controlled wall electric heater . . . either recessed or surface-mounted. Ideal for halls, small rooms or "problem spots" that may need more heat.

Boost-up a forced-air heat system by installing an electric supplementary heater in ducts to areas needing more warmth. Units come in various types and capacities, keyed to your specific needs.

Only flameless heat is so versatile...so comfortable, convenient and clean!

If you're planning to finish, remodel, add-on or improve your home, get all the facts. Talk to an architect, builder, heating or electrical contractor.

Driver Watches As Train Smashes Car

Lynn Foster, 20, Homer Road, stood and watched when the 1960 Comet he had been driving was smashed by an eastbound Milwaukee Railroad freight train at the old Minnesota City Road crossing Wednesday night.

The car, which was wrecked, was thrown 50 feet east of the crossing. The accident occurred at about 10:30 p.m. about one-half mile east of Minnesota City, according to sheriff's deputies. The car was owned by Bart Foster, father of the driver.

Young Foster was driving north and applied his brakes to stop at the crossing, said deputies. They found 72 feet of skid marks to the south of the crossing. The deputies said that the road was slippery and no sand had been placed there.

The car skidded off the road and became hung up on the tracks. Young Foster could not move it and got out of the car, tried to push it back, saw the train coming, walked behind it to the south and watched the crash.

At the sheriff's office this morning he said, "This was kind of a new experience for me. I felt kind of helpless about it. There was nothing I could do, so I just watched the train hit it."

"It hit the car just behind the front door and spun the car around and around until it came to rest about 50 feet away."

According to deputies, the train No. 72, was going about 45 m.p.h. and was pulling 83 cars. The engineer was Glenn Loe, St. Paul, and the conductor was William Murray, Minneapolis.

Mill City Police Probe Back in Lap of Chief

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A rookie policeman's story that he had split a carjack and his implication of two other officers, was back in the lap of Police Chief E. I. Walling today.

The Hennepin County Grand Jury Wednesday voted unanimously if not to return an indictment. Walling said in a statement to the press later he realized the evidence was weak.

He added charges of misconduct would be placed against the three men, suspended for 60 days without pay Jan. 7.

Walling identified the three as Donald H. Plowman, 30, a rookie of less than a year; Paul D. Newham, 38, a veteran of 18 years on the force; and Palmer O. Aamodt, 29, who has served three years.

The chief said Plowman had told a sergeant at the precinct where all three work that he had split $60 in larceny loot while investigating a gasoline station break-in last June; also, that Plowman had split $40 with Aamodt during a Dec. 12 investigation of a store burglary.

Plowman was also quoted as having charged Newham with breaking into an electric company last Sept. 7, but said that he took nothing.

Newham and Aamodt denied any money splitting, said Walling and Newham claimed not to recollect events of Sept. 7 because he had been drinking on duty.

Al Eilers, Smiley & Associates, Minneapolis architects who planned the new hospital, will meet with the boards to discuss preliminary plans.

Store Entered At Cochrane

COCHRANE, Wis.—A burglary was attempted at Cochrane this morning, but the man who smashed a window to get into Zeller's Red Owl store found nothing in the safe except records and Green Stamp books. He didn't take them.

Carl Jacobson, village policeman, said it happened sometime between 2 a.m. when he went off duty, and 5 a.m.

When Zeller went to work this morning, he found his safe open and papers scattered about. Entrance had been gained through a window, about 2 by 1 1/2 feet, in the warehouse at the back of the store. Booted footsteps led to the window.

The safe was open so the robber had no difficulty getting in, but he found nothing of monetary value inside. Scattered papers indicated a careful search. No merchandise was disturbed nor is there apparently missing. A wastebasket was tipped over.

Investigation is continuing by Jacobson and Buffalo County Sheriff Glen Davis, Alma.

Beer-Buying Age Raised to 21 in Wisconsin Bill

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Wisconsin would limit the sale of beer to persons at least 21 years of age under terms of a bill introduced in the State Senate today.

The measure was offered by Sen. Ernest Keppeler, R-Sheboygan. He said it was the first of several he would offer on the controversial beer-buying issue.

Wisconsin now permits the sale of beer to 18-year-olds but communities are given the option of changing the limit. Many of them, including Milwaukee, continue to maintain a 21-year-old minimum. The Senate met briefly before adjourning until Friday morning for an informal session. Regular business will resume Tuesday.

Lanesboro Students Get Smoke Holiday

LANESBORO, Minn. (Special) — It's vacation for 250 Lanesboro elementary children today and Friday, but Superintendent Earl A. Johnson hopes to have their three-story building back in shape for classes again Monday morning.

An explosion of the boiler in the furnace room at 4:25 p.m. Wednesday blew the 2 by 3-foot furnace doors off, broke windows in the boiler room, blew the front door of the building open but did damage it, and scattered a fine black soot on all the windows in the school.

All children had left the school except a few boys in the gym. Some teachers still were in the building. The janitor, who was on the second floor, heard the dull noise from the explosion. He said

Kennedy Asks $200,000 for Project Here

Appropriations included in President Kennedy's proposed budget for flood control and related projects will include a $200,000 item for flood control at Winona, it was announced today. Proposals are for the fiscal year starting July 1, 1963.

The amount is part of a requested total of $2,056,000 for the complete project as outlined in the City Council Dec. 3 by Col. William B. Strandberg, district engineer, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, St. Paul.

Col. Strandberg said today he assumed the $200,000 request would, if approved by Congress, cover costs of design and planning and possibly some initial construction. Included in the project is the raising of 2.9 miles of levees to protect the city against a flood stage of 19 feet. This is two feet higher than the level reached by the 1952 flood which swept through Winona.

Included in the plan are provisions for coping with runoff waters from the sort of rainstorm which expected statistically only once in 30 years.

Col. Strandberg's presentation was in the form of a design memorandum which he asked the Council to approve formally at its Dec. 3 meeting. The action was a required preliminary to submission of the proposal to the Corps of Engineers for inclusion in its budgetary requests. The resolution of approval was adopted by the Council and forwarded to the Engineers.

School Correction

A Winona Daily News report Wednesday on consolidation procedures involving the plat of St. Charles Independent District 858 and 10 common school districts was incorrect on one point. If voters approve the consolidation at an election, the common school districts' assumption of St. Charles district's debt is automatic. A special debt assumption election will not be needed.

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The names of three attorneys have been sent to U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy by the State Bar of Wisconsin which stated the men are qualified for appointment as judge of the U.S. District Court in Wisconsin's Western District.

John Klavin, Milwaukee, the state bar president, said Wednesday night that the men selected by the association's standing committee on judicial qualification are W. Wade Boardman and James Doyle, both of Madison, and William H. Frawley of Eau Claire.

Klavin said the men were selected as a possible successor to the late U.S. District Judge Patrick T. Stone of Wausau, who died Sunday.

NFO Starts Holding Action on Corn, Beans

TRACY, Minn. (AP) — The National Farmers Organization is starting a withholding action on corn and soybeans in an effort to boost market prices.

President Lee Staley, attending an NFO rally at the Armory here Wednesday night, refused to comment on how wide would the action or what area it covers.

Staley, from Rea, Minn., said that word of the movement was being put out via a "minute man system" of farmer contacting farmer. He said the corn soybean boycott was aimed at encouraging NFO memberships as well as hiking prices.

He added that it also was hoped, by creating a shortage of corn, to boost cattle prices as the feed costs go up.

Some 1,200 attended the pancake and sausage dinner that preceded Staley's talk.

It'll Be Cold Along Parade Line of March

Dry but cold weather is predicted for the Winona Winter Carnival parade Saturday afternoon.

The high at parade time, 2 p.m., is expected to be within the zero to 15 above range. And the nighttime low may be well below the zero mark; forecasts issued today indicated.

IN FACT, the weather prediction for the next 30 days indicates the northern half of the nation can expect below freezing temperatures for much of that time. The temperatures are slated to be below normal and precipitation less than normal.

The light snow falling today was slated to extend into tonight but no great accumulation was expected.

Diminishing cloudiness and colder is the prediction for tonight with a low of 10-18 below. Friday will see occasional cloudiness, and continued cold weather with the high zero to 5 above.

Continued cold and no precipitation is the outlook for Saturday.

After rising to 9 above Wednesday afternoon, the thermometer dipped to -14 during the night, was -11 at 7 a.m. and 6 above at noon today.

A year ago today the high was 11 above and the low 16 below. Five inches of snow lay on the ground. All-time high for Jan. 17 was 56 in 1894 and the low -30 in 1873. Mean for the past 24 hours was -3. Normal for this time of the year is 15.

ON JAN. 20 last year — the day of the carnival parade — the high during the marching was 1 above. Low in the morning had been -13.

Highway departments of Minnesota and Wisconsin reported all main highways in good winter driving condition except for a few widely scattered slippery spots, especially in the southern part of Wisconsin.

International Falls reported a low of -26 and Bemidji had -23 this morning. At Rochester the low was -10, after a high of 2 above Wednesday morning. La Crosse reported figures of -11 and 11 above for the same times. It was snowing at Duluth and the thermometer was -13 this morning.

Check Writer Gets Jail Term

JAMES R. RUDNICK, 27, 309 Adams St., this morning drew an eight-month county jail sentence in District Court here on a check charge.

Arrested Dec. 20 after cashing a $20 check without funds, Rudnick previously had pleaded guilty to the charge and sentencing had been deferred pending a report on a pre-sentence investigation.

Judge Leo F. Murphy today ordered that Rudnick be given credit for the time he had been in custody. The remaining portion of the sentence will be served under provisions of the Hiber Act which permits a prisoner to be released from jail during hours of employment and returned to jail at night. Sheriff George Fort will make arrangements for Rudnick's employment. From wages will be deducted costs of board and other expenses, including court costs.

Assistant County Attorney Richard Darby represented the state this morning and Rudnick was represented by his court-appointed attorney John D. McGill.

Skating Victim Slated for Surgery

Becky VanAken, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zane VanAken, 751 West Burns Valley Rd., was to have had surgery at a Rochester hospital today for treatment of a head injury suffered in an ice skating accident.

The child was injured Jan. 6 when she fell on the ice while skating at the Lake Winona rink.

She returned home that afternoon but later a physician was consulted and she was taken to Community Memorial Hospital here Jan. 8.

After examination and treatment she was transferred Monday to the Rochester hospital where examinations indicated surgery might be necessary. Her parents are with her at Rochester.

A rink attendant said that he understood that the girl had been standing on the ice and when she started to skate tripped in some manner, fell to the ice and struck her head. She was unconscious for a time after the fall.

In the morning house after she regained consciousness she talked to the rink attendants and one of them drove her to her home.

It Happened Last Night New York Is Suddenly 'Square'

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Strange things are happening to our strike-bound city that, years from now, will seem incredible.

Mary Martin — invited weeks ago to a big tribute dinner to Dick Rodgers the other night — didn't go. She was sitting home alone, too, unaware she'd been invited.

Last fall, when the invitation arrived, Mary's secretary decided she couldn't go as she'd be in Brazil, on a freighter trip, first time in four years, seeing her estate.

Time passed. A dock strike started. Nobody was going anywhere. Papers weren't telling anybody anything. Dick Halliday, Mary's husband, leaped in to take advantage of the leisurely situation and finish up plans for next fall. "Jennifer" set for next fall. "Maybe it's just as well for us," Halliday says. "We'll fly next week if we have to."

Some of their friends found it hard to understand that they, of all people who knew Dick Rodgers, were not there. What they can't understand is that in this city of non-communication, nobody really knows anything that's going on. We're all squares.

THE FEUD between Merv Griffin and Johnny Carson is a boiling — though neither'll quite admit it. Merv's still angry about Johnny's people cutting his name from an interviewee's lips. Though Johnny put the blame on one of his men, Johnny must have been responsive to a script I did, and pooh-poohs the whole idea that Johnny didn't know about it. He says, shrugging, "They all chickened out. Nobody wants to fight with me."

It's been confirmed by my sources in Paris—Brigitte Bardot isn't fooling, and definitely intends — as of now — to come to New York next month to promote her latest movie which concerns a warrior resting from the wars. (He rests with HER?) Previously BB's been frightened about the NY reporters and photographers.

Warren Beatty joined the throng of actors buying literary properties either to star in or produce. He bought "Honey Bear, I Think I Love You," by Charles Eastman — in a deal with Max Youngstein and Jerry Pickman.

SALVADOR DALI, the character, walked out into 57th St. and waved down a taxi with much brandishing of his cane — then handed the cabbie a leaflet, announcing his next exhibition at Doubleday's as he hopped in. Playwright Harry Kurnitz, walking through the seven-story Playboy Club, said, "This would make a great musical." Guess he meant the Bunnies. Jennifer Jones' son, Robert Walker, who's the image of his late father, is showing what a good actor he can be in "The Ceremony" which he's making in Spain, playing Laurence Harvey's brother. Foolish Geese
This flock of Greater Canada honkers, crowded together in the near freezing waters of Silver Lake, Rochester, are probably pretty mad at that gander that failed to take them south last fall. The gander in turn, replied, "Well, grandpa told me to stay here — where the water doesn't freeze — we have done it for a score of years."

Anyway, the picture of the cuddled together to keep warm geese was made in the Rochester Silver Lake area during this week. An estimated 5,000 of these big Canada honkers winter annually at Rochester. One of the winter attractions at Rochester is these geese, in varied size flocks, moving back and forward over the city from the Maywood Farms where corn by the ton is fed to them, to the lake warm water of Silver Lake, a by-product of the power plant there.

An interesting theory has been developed around these big geese — larger than the common Canada goose, by the Fish and Wildlife Service. Some of its experts have been investigating the background of the Rochester geese which have increased through the years from a small flock into a problem flock of thousands.

Half a century ago, naturalists knew of another class of Canada geese that apparently vanished or became extinct in recent years. It was listed in cut out a billion.

For all functions of government, Kennedy requested new appropriations of $96.5 billion. These are the figures Congress debates. Appropriations control much of current spending, although part of the nearly $99 billion Kennedy proposes to spend has been previously authorized.

The President faces opposition to both his spending and tax plans because of the debt they will create.

Last year Congress raised the temporary limit to $308 billion, providing for a drop to $305 billion next April 1, to $300 billion on June 25 and back to the permanent ceiling of $285 billion on July 1.

To cope with conditions as he sees them, Kennedy urged a prompt extension of the $308-billion limit through June 30. He said he would seek a further increase for the next 12 months. The present outlook, he said, is for a debt of $315.6 billion at the end of that period. He postponed making a specific request, however, until a more reliable estimate is possible.

Before getting into the next fiscal year, Kennedy called on Congress to appropriate another $3.9 billion for the current year. He said that much is needed to pay for legislation passed in 1962 without adequate financing.

For 1963-64 spending, he made these additional recommendations in what is known as the administrative budget:
Agriculture—$5.7 billion, down $1.1 billion.
Natural resources—$2.5 billion, up a billion.
Housing and community development—$300 million, down $200 million.
Health, labor and welfare—$5.6 billion, up $700 million.

inadequate economic growth and a temporary deficit caused by programs designed to generate the economy, increase revenues and eventually achieve budget surpluses.

"The first type of deficit is a sign of waste and weakness," he argued. "The second is an investment in the future."

Kennedy foresaw receipts of $66.9 billion. He offered this reasoning to conclude that reduced taxes will start producing new revenues in the year ahead.

Tax cuts taking effect in 1963— he didn't say when—would by themselves decrease government income for the fiscal year some $5.3 billion. But two factors trim the net loss from what might have been expected to $2.7 billion. These are a speedup in collection of corporation taxes, which now lag six months, and the advance in taxable income anticipated from the stimulus of a cut in rates. And despite this loss, receipts actually will increase $1.4 billion from the 1962-63 estimate of $65.5 billion because of an enlarged economy.

Thus Kennedy sought to rebut conservatives in Congress who de-

Mobile X-ray Unit Set for Buffalo County

ALMA, Wis. (Special)—The mobile X-ray unit of the state Board of Health will be in Buffalo County Feb. 18-March 8 for a free screening program.

In addition to chest X-rays for early discovery of tuberculosis, the survey also detects other types of chest diseases and high blood pressure and this year, for the first time, offers diabetes detection.

Homemaker groups who have helped with this program in the past again will assist with promotion and volunteers needed to staff registration centers and the bus. Planning meetings are now being held with center chairmen at Fountain City, Cochrane, Waumandee, Alma, Nelson, Gilmerton and Mondovi, where the bus will make scheduled stops.

Immediate purpose of the survey is to screen as many apparently healthy adults as possible, especially those over 40 who live or work in the community. Those under 18 are not X-rayed unless specifically referred by their family physician or public health nurse.

The mobile unit is coming here with approval and backing of the state Medical Society and Tri-County Medical Society.

Kolve Candidate For Blair Mayor

BLAIR, Wis. (Special) — Amos Kolve will seek the office of mayor of Blair. Papers have been filed with the city clerk.

No indication has been received from the incumbent, W. H. Melby, whether he will seek re-election.

Papers also have been filed for George Winick, who is seeking re-election as 2nd Ward supervisor.

Jerome Mattison said this week he will not seek re-election as 2nd Ward alderman. He further declared he will not serve another term even if appointed, as he was two years ago.

Melvin Hjerleid, 3rd Ward alderman, stated that he will run for re-election for a third two-year term.

The nomination deadline is Jan. 29. The incumbent alderman in the 1st Ward, Lloyd Skogstad, announced earlier that he would not seek re-election.

Positions open this year are that of mayor, one alderman from each of the city's three wards and 2nd Ward supervisor. All terms are for two years.

$30,000 Toy Shop Fire in N.D.

NAPOLEON, N.D. (AP) — The D. & E. Toy Store, variety shop on Napoleon's main street, was destroyed by fire Tuesday with loss estimated at $30,000.

Firemen, handicapped by 11 below zero cold, spent nearly four hours dousing the flames. They were kept from spreading to adjoining grocery and hardware stores.

Cause of the blaze, which started on the main floor, was not determined. The loss estimate was made by P. J. Wentz, owner of the building, and Mr. and Mrs. Duane Draeger who operated the shop.

Children's Hunt

Thursday's child will have to come up with a shiny new 1962 penny if he or she wants to stay youngsters. All items are to be brought to Lake Park Lodge Saturday at 9:30 a.m. At that time the final clue will be given in the hunt for a hidden $25 savings bond.

The new cent is the clue for today and should be placed and kept in the container with the two other required items: Pictures of Miss Bonnie Pahnke and of one of this year's queen candidates clipped from the Daily News.

Friday's Daily News will name the fifth clue for participating youngsters. All items are to be brought to Lake Park Lodge Saturday at 9:30 a.m. At that time the final clue will be given in the hunt for a hidden $25 savings bond.

All children in Winona and its trade area 12 years and younger are eligible to enter. Contestants should register by telephone or in person at the park-recreation office in City Hall.

Family of 12 Forced Outside As Home Burns

PINE CITY, Minn. (AP) — A family of 12, forced into 20-degree below zero cold in their night clothes and barefoot when their home caught fire and was destroyed, learned in a matter of hours Tuesday how many good neighbors they had.

Henry Tendrup, 62, his 30-year-old pregnant wife, and 10 children ranging in age from 1 to 13 made their way in the severe cold to the home of a neighbor a quarter mile away. Some toes were frost nipped but a doctor said the family escaped serious injury.

The Tendrups lost all possessions when their home near Cloverdale, about 14 miles east of Hinckley, was leveled by the fire.

DEAR ABBY:

Enjoy Your Good Fortune, Son!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I suppose I should be the happiest boy in the world today but I am not. Here is what happened: I started taking violin lessons at school from a teacher who is hired by the school to teach whole classes. I used a violin owned by the school because my father hasn't been able to work much lately and we couldn't afford to buy one. Well, this morning the violin teacher GAVE me a wonderful violin. He said the father of a student who refused to practice called him and told him to give the violin to anyone who would use and appreciate it. He chose me. I love the violin but I know whose it was, and I feel terrible taking it. What should I do?

FEELS BAD

DEAR FEELS: Don't feel bad. If the boy who first owned the violin valued it, his father would not have given it away. Master the second-hand fiddle and one day you might make concert master.

DEAR ABBY: Is it wrong to send a single girl (age 19) a wedding invitation and write on the bottom of it, "Bring Mac"? (Mac is her boyfriend.) My future mother-in-law said it was wrong and I should have sent Mac a separate invitation. What is your opinion?

DEAR GETTING: To be proper, one should send a separate invitation to each unmarried guest. Hand-written notes on formal wedding invitations are out of place. These include, "No gifts, please," "No children under 12," and "Bring Mac."

DEAR ABBY: Our son has been in the Army for a year. At first he saved almost all his pay. He'd bank it where he was stationed and send home his bank book to prove it. Lately he hasn't been sending home his bank book. We are afraid he is spending his money on his buddies to become popular, and in no time he will be bled dry. He is very immature and has no sense of responsibility. Can we get the government to send us his pay so we can save it for him? We will, in turn, send him an allowance to live on. He doesn't need much as the Army is housing and feeding him.

DEAR PARENTS: In only very rare and exceptional cases will Uncle Sam step in and protect the lot from a man who's protecting his country. Impress upon your son the importance of saving, and pray he does.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MRS. D: A spoiled child never loves his mother. You had better get some professional counseling before it is too late.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

school Tuesday when the bus they when they arrived, they could normally ride was canceled by the citywide transit strike.

They were rewarded. A teacher, Thomas Ionescu, 13, and Peter drove them home at the end of the day.

Directed Verdict For Patrolman In Youth's Death

AUSTIN, Minn. (AP) — A directed verdict of acquittal was ordered Wednesday in favor of a highway patrolman who was sued for $25,000 by the father of a boy killed while the officer was pursuing him.

Plaintiff in the District Court action was Harold W. Bauers, Oakland, who was acting as trustee for his late son Richard, 17. The youth was killed in a smashup of his car Dec. 13, 1959 in an early morning chase by Patrolman Clifford Mulder of Pipestone, formerly of Austin.

Bauers contended there was contributory negligence by the officer in pursuing the boy, who according to Mulder had a faulty taillight.

As Mulder sought to stop and question young Bauers, the boy sped away at speeds up to 110 M.P.H., finally crashing on a country road near Oakland. Mulder, whose car also crashed, suffered minor injuries.

Judge W. F. Plunkett ordered a verdict of acquittal on motion of the defense, which argued Richard Bauers was guilty of contributory negligence himself.

Church Burns at Sacred Heart

SACRED HEART, Minn. (AP) — Fire destroyed the 92-year-old, English Lutheran Church, a landmark in this western Minnesota community, Wednesday night.

Firemen from Sacred Heart and Renville, who fought blaze for more than three hours, said the furnace apparently blew up. Traffic on U.S. 212 was rerouted during the fire.

There was no immediate estimate of damage but witnesses said the building appeared a total loss.

Sacred Heart, in Renville County, is about nine miles east of Granite Falls.

ROBERT C. RUARK

U.S. Can't Be Soft on Reds

NEW YORK — Che Guevara, Castro's brains, moneyman and top cohort of the Russians, has said recently that if missiles for the Russians' charming experiment in Cuba had been available he would have pulled the trigger.

"If the rockets had remained, we would have used them all and directed them against the very heart of the United States, including New York in our defense against aggression."

I believe Senor Guevara. I also believe the words of Fidel Castro, Fidel's kid brother, who said the same thing a couple of years ago, even before the Russians implanted the launching sites.

If such weapons had been available the other day in Katanga, I think that the desperate Tshombe might well have caused them to be pointed toward Leopoldville; in short, I think that any small-minded maniac (and such a man was Adolf Hitler) might press the button if his life, aims and career were finished.

What frightens me for this new year and the ones hopefully to come are not the great powers, and here I quote an ancient statement, from Bernard Baruch. What scares the living pants off me is that the possibility of cheap nuclear power will allow the little, damn-all countries to home-cook their own atomic weapons.

It is shockingly possible that nuclear weapons-running will become as popular a sport as the old business of selling Winchester to the Apaches. The Russians have already tried it in Cuba, with no guarantee that a Raul Castro or a Che Guevara wouldn't have been able to get hold of the firing machinery. A madman, or even a dedicated irrational, is capable of any monstrosity when his own earth crumbles beneath him.

A WELL-accredited physicist, Christopher Hohenemser of Washington University of St. Louis, has said recently that 11 countries, including Communist China, soon will be able to join the exclusive thing as intellectually wary as Sukarno of Indonesia suddenly stopping his twisting activities with a sing-song girl to yell "Fire One" in the general direction of Australia, or some mad Mullah trying to disrupt the entire Christian world in the name of the One True Faith, whatever it might be.

A BORDER dispute becomes an international catastrophe, because when the first bomb is thrown — such as a Guevara attack on Washington and New York — the Pentagon and Kremlin naturally assume that Russia or the U.S. pressed the button, and blow up one another in return. We could have had just that little clue only last fall.

The big boys, so far, have been reasonably wary of seriously threatening with the death-dealing dauntless, but I don't think the punks would be so responsible. Particularly not so if the punks were abnormal, and suddenly became that if the world wouldn't allow itself to be conquered by a Cuba, so all right for the world, ations. It could happen, all right, and the idea murders sleep.

The Way

CANADA'S EXPERIENCE in the year just ended helps point the way for other nations seeking a spot in the economic sunlight.

The Land of the Maple Leaf chalked up the highest economic growth rate of any country in the North Atlantic community in 1962. Its gross national product—the value of all goods and services—rose about eight percent. Canadian economists expect this year's growth rate to be four to five percent, which would still top the prospect for the United States.

How did Canada achieve the striking eight percent increase last year? Mainly by stabilizing its currency. The Canadian dollar had gyrated widely for two years. Indeed, from 1957 to 1961, Canada's economic growth lagged behind that of the rest of the West instead of leading.

It was in May, 1961, that Canada solved its foreign exchange problem by devaluing its dollar and pegging it at 92½ cents U.S.

The favorable exchange rate gave Canadian industry fresh ability to compete in world markets. Like other countries which are big sources of raw materials, Canada relies heavily on exports for GNP gains. Major advances were scored in 1962 by all Canada's raw materials industries—iron ore, aluminum, crude petroleum, natural gas, lumber and wood pulp. Along with aircraft—mainly a transport-type plane—these industries account for 80 percent of Canadian export gains last year.

SO CANADIANS are looking forward confidently to another good year. Only two small clouds on the horizon are noted by Business Week magazine. One is the possibility of renewed nationalist agitation in the Canadian election campaign. An outburst of this kind, denouncing "domination" of Canadian industry by U.S. companies, contributed to a flight from the Canadian dollar during the 1962 campaign.

The other worry of some Canadian economists is a trend toward economic planning like that in vogue in Western Europe. The current session of Parliament has been asked to create a National Economic Development Board. The role of the proposed board is unclear. If one of its tasks should be to reduce foreign "domination"—mainly U.S.—the result could be loss of U.S. confidence in the Canadian economy, upsetting the balance of payments.

WHAT IT ADDS UP to, according to Business Week, is this: If political stability matches economic stability, the outlook is bright for Canadian prosperity.

Who Will Pick Up the Pieces?

DID YOU TAKE a peek at your real estate tax? It is a shocker. That recent valuation increase is what might be known as a whammy.

We are coming around to the belief a state sales tax may be the solution needed to bring some relief to home owners. Right now the tax on real estate is cruelly high and punishing.

Sometime when you are in nasty frame of mind, start jotting down all the taxes you pay in a single year. Real estate, federal and state income, personal property, social security, auto license, gasoline tax, hunting license, fishing license, boat license, bicycle license, dog license, telephone tax, driver license, auto ownership transfer license, and all the nuisance taxes such as those on tobacco, cosmetics, playing cards, liquor, and probably dozens more we can't think of at the moment.

Anyway strike off a total and if you're not in a nasty frame of mind to start with, you'll be in one now.

DON'T FORGET you're working these days for the government. You won't be working for yourself until after April 17. It takes three and one-half months for the average person to earn enough money just to pay taxes. That's almost one-third of a year.

Well, we asked for it. We send to Washington the big spenders who promise us the most. The candidate who stands for government economy these days hasn't a chance. He's old-fashioned and lacks this new-blown virtue of "sophistication."

We still think it our duty to police, feed and finance the world despite the fact we are near national bankruptcy and have the biggest debt in the history of the world, and are still trying to fool ourselves and each other with 36 cent dollars.

IT'S NOT SO much a question of where we're headed. We know that. The question is who will pick up the pieces. St. Cloud Times.

Little Change In Congress

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON—The 88th Congress has got itself started after a fashion, and there are some differences between the new one and its predecessor. But a delicate measuring instrument is required to find them.

A change, if only a symbolic change, has occurred in the House. Younger Republicans asserted themselves and elected one of their own, Rep. Gerald Ford Jr. of Michigan, to the chairmanship of the House Republican conference.

The conference is a body with little prestige and less influence, since the minority leader and the ranking Republican committeemen tend to make all the important decisions.

Nevertheless, it is significant that the younger members, on the Republican side, a new generation as it were, felt the time had come to give a new and brighter look to the GOP in the House.

Ford is both able and personable. Politically speaking, he is a conservative, yet not a blind conservative. In his 14 years in the House, he has shown capacity for leadership despite the limited opportunities for employing it.

New members with exceptional talents are to be found in both houses. That is true particularly in the Senate. On the Democratic side, Senators such as Birch Bayh of Indiana, Gaylord Nelson of Wisconsin and George McGovern of South Dakota are promising hopefuls. James B. Pearson, on the Republican side, appointed to fill the vacancy left by the death of Sen. Andrew Schoepel, is welcomed by the moderates, who feel their strength increasing as against the right or Barry Goldwater wing in the minority.

BUT THE newcomers will not long be immune from the disease that afflicts the Congress and especially its abler and more vigorous members. That disease is, in a word, frustration—an almost paralyzing sense of inertia and futility. Conscientious men who would like to see action on the big problems of the day feel themselves caught in the rigidities of rules, precedents and traditions.

Nor is this merely a matter of the right of unlimited debate which now threatens to tie the Senate up for an indefinite time. At least as frustrating in its effect is the seniority rule. Able men with broad background knowledge in specialized fields are kept waiting for years on the seniority escalator.

When he was majority leader, Vice President Lyndon Johnson frequently waived this rule. On the Republican side, it remains as fixed as the laws of the Medes and the Persians. Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, elected to the Senate four times (three times to fill short unexpired terms), is by all odds better equipped to serve on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee than anyone on his side of the aisle. An able Ambassador to India, he has had a lifelong interest in foreign policy.

YET AS things stand it seems unlikely that he will be given a place on the committee in the four years more he has to serve. Five other Senators outrank him in seniority. While it is questionable whether any of the five has an abiding interest in the nation's foreign policy, the two Republican vacancies will be taken over if only for the prestige of a place on this important committee. Cooper's committee assignments are on Agriculture and Public Works.

This is not an isolated instance. The wheels grind so slowly that on both sides of the aisle members have a sense of serving on a treadmill which means one step forward and two steps back.

Sen. Carl Hayden of Arizona, re-elected in November at the age of 85 to his seventh term in the Senate, is chairman of the key Appropriations Committee, which he serves conscientiously. Waiting in line behind him is Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia, who at 65 begins his 30th year in the Senate. Far more than Hayden, Russell is a traditionalist who has what amounts to a veneration for the rules and the precedents of the Senate as they have come out of previous centuries.

IN THIS same light, the victory of the Administration over the size of the House Rules Committee is the kind of triumph that means really more of the same. The same committee chairmen are in place with all their great powers and prerogatives.

THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Venezuela Seeks Better Oil Treatment From U.S.

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Some very important preliminaries took place between President Kennedy and President Romulo Betancourt of Venezuela in preparation for the latter's trip to the United States Feb. 19-20. They pertained to the U.S. presidential proclamation of last Nov. 30 which restricts in part Venezuelan oil exports to the United States.

This column is now able to report the details of this significant conversation as follows:

Following President Kennedy's visit to Venezuela over one year ago, the Venezuelan government for a while had a memo to the White House summarizing its views on oil. A second memo, roughly reviewing the same points, was submitted by the Venezuelan embassy in September 1962. President Kennedy instructed his oil task force to consider Venezuela's views in preparing his oil proclamation of November 1962.

On Nov. 28, the Venezuelan government was given advance notice of the proclamation, and it was issued two days later. The proclamation was much more restrictive than expected and was dictated in part to please the late Sen. Robert Kerr of Oklahoma, champion of the Southwest oil lobby. It immediately brought a visit from Venezuela's minerals chief, Perez Alfonso, who has been a staunch friend of the United States and who stormed over to the White House to protest against the proclamation.

He called upon Mike Feldman, a personal friend, who offered to take him over to see the No. 1 oil expert, assistant secretary of the Interior John Kelly. But Alfonso apparently felt that this was bunk passing and that, if the White House could not handle the matter of friendly oil relations between two friendly countries, there was no use of his talking to subordinates.

A couple of days later, President Betancourt got on the inter-American telephone circuit that links the American heads of state. He put through a call to President Kennedy at his Palm Beach vacation headquarters. The connection was poor, but Betancourt managed to get across the idea, first, that he felt Venezuela had not been properly consulted before the proclamation was issued; and second, that the proclamation did not take Venezuela's interests into account. President Kennedy, shouting to make himself heard over the static, promised to send White House aide Mike Feldman to Venezuela at once to straighten out the matter.

President Kennedy phoned Feldman in Washington and directed him to catch the first available plane to Caracas. Feldman arrived at 1 a.m. and began negotiations with President Betancourt the following evening. The negotiations lasted throughout dinner. Betancourt made some informal remarks in English, but the formal negotiations were conducted in Spanish through a translator.

The Venezuelan president started off by complaining politely that Venezuela hadn't been adequately consulted. Feldman explained that the President had taken into account the two memos summarizing Venezuela's views and had instructed the oil task force to consider these views carefully. Feldman pointed out also that Venezuela was notified two days in advance of the proclamation.

Betancourt replied that two days was hardly enough time for his experts to analyze anything as complicated as the oil proclamation. He suggested that the two governments should have consulted at every stage of the proclamation's development. Betancourt also referred to the staunch support given the United States by Venezuela in the OAS and made some friendly remarks about the need for better cooperation between friends and allies.

Feldman suggested that from then on the two governments should maintain continuous consultation on oil. "Our two countries are the two largest oil producers in the free world," he said. "It is appropriate that we should keep in more or less continuous consultation on a technical level."

In addition to the technical consultation, he suggested an annual high-level meeting on both oil and trade. This pleased President Betancourt and his advisers, who readily agreed.

Then Betancourt went into some of the technical complaints about the President's proclamation. He claimed that the proclamation would favor United States inland refineries which bought most of their oil from sources other than Venezuela. He suggested that the coastal refineries which do more business with Venezuela should receive preferential treatment.

Feldman made it clear that the United States government could not favor one group of companies over another, but he suggested that a satisfactory solution could be worked out in technical discussions, which he urged should begin immediately.

Betancourt approved of this idea, then went on to object to the provisions in the proclamation for a gradual change from a historical to a production basis in allocating oil quotas. The companies that historically had held the highest quotas, he pointed out, were the ones doing business with Venezuela. Therefore, he considered the proclamation prejudicial to Venezuela.

Feldman explained that the historical quotas froze the oil industry and did not stimulate growth. By offering gradually increased quotas to companies that boosted their production, the United States government was only trying to stimulate the oil industry. However, Feldman suggested that this, too, should be a subject for adjudication by the technical experts.

The White House aide also offered to consult fully with Venezuelan experts over a forthcoming proclamation, on residual oil quotas. Feldman said the United States government should keep in mind that residual fuel comprises 50 percent of Venezuela's oil exports to this country. Feldman also assured Betancourt that the President's November proclamation, despite Venezuela's objection, will permit an increase of Venezuelan oil exports to the United States by 10,000 barrels a day in 1963.

In the spirit of these talks, President Betancourt will now visit Washington on Feb. 19-20 bringing with him Foreign Minister Falcon Briceño, Finance Minister German Otero, Minerals Minister Perez Alfonso, and the new able Venezuelan ambassador to Washington, Enrique Tejera Paris. It will be a most important visit.

Aid to India Helping West

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — The United States is getting ready to help India in her war with Red China. Military supplies and perhaps technical advisers will be sent to aid Indian military forces. Great Britain is doing the same.

This is a development of far-reaching importance in America's relations with the Far East.

For it means that at last the United States and the West will have a leverage against Red China and cause the Communists to hesitate before attacking Formosa or the people of any other area in the western Pacific now allied with this country.

It is, therefore, to the military advantage of the United States to assist India. Also, India's request for assistance from America is, in effect, the beginning of military alliance. Conceivably if India becomes a real military power and is definitely aligned against Red China, the day may come when the Chinese in Tibet will feel encouraged to take the risks of a revolt against the Communist regime in Peking.

Certainly the whole South-east Asia situation will be affected favorably for the United States if there is a definite military tie-up between America and India. This becomes a potential force in diplomacy and can achieve a kind of balance of power which could postpone indefinitely, if not avert, a big war between Red China and the West.

It is important, too, to note that Pandit Nehru seems to have learned a lesson which should be taken to heart by other so-called "neutrals" of the world. It is that, when the chips are down, little help of substance can be expected from the Soviet Union. For a long time now Mr. Nehru has played ball with Moscow. Perhaps much of this can be blamed on Krishna Menon, who seems to have swallowed the Communist line for many years. He finally was forced out of the position of minister of defense and then out of the cabinet altogether by the realists inside India who couldn't tolerate his double-dealing.

WITH KRISHNA Menon out of the picture, the patriotic leaders of India might influence Mr. Nehru to become a full-fledged partner of the West, particularly the United States. India over the next 25 years will need economic help for her huge population, but she can make no progress in a sociological or industrial way unless her military position is secure. If the United States is able to accomplish this for her, the future of India's relationships with this country will be on a firm basis.

The Indian government itself, however, is not without fault. Its dispute with Pakistan over the Kashmir territory is illogical and unjustified. The people of Kashmir are Moslems and, if it were left to a vote, they would go to Pakistan. India has refused to negotiate. This is a mistake.

LIKEWISE, Mr. Nehru made a blunder in the way he handled the Goa question. Here was a province that had belonged to Portugal for centuries. There were many ways to settle the dispute equitably, but these were disregarded by him and an act of aggression was substituted. This lost India lots of friends in the outside world. For Mr. Nehru had been the leading champion of the formula of settling international disputes by mediation and other peaceful methods.

Now the future of India herself is at stake. An act of aggression has been committed by Red China. India has already lost a valuable part of her territory. It is a paradox to read news reports from New Delhi stating that, in spite of what has happened, Mr. Nehru still favors the admission of Red China into the United Nations. Yet it was a similar act of aggression by Red China in North Korea in 1950 against U.N. forces which prompted the passing of a resolution by the general assembly which condemned Red China as an aggressor. This has been the main reason why the United States has held out firmly ever since against rewarding an aggressor with membership in the United Nations.

IF THERE'S A more enlightened attitude by India in the field of international affairs and if Red China is outlawed at last in New Delhi because of the latest acts of aggression, then the way is

Lewiston Needs New School Now

To the Editor:

Why do we vote? Is it not because we have a democratic form of government?

We vote for persons to represent us in the government. Mr. Laufenburger and Mr. Daley were both elected by a majority of votes cast by the people. Their opponents (both incumbents) conceded the office because of this vote. Voting is a great American privilege. It is a means of voicing our opinions. Laws are made by a majority of votes. Why then, should our representatives be asked to introduce legislation approved by a minority group when it is contrary to what the majority wants?

A great number of Lewiston area voters were in favor of a central school at Utica but changed their minds when it was made clear that a central school could only mean a school situated in St. Charles. Meetings upon meetings have been held. The public (including Alton) asked questions and then had the opportunity to vote on the issue. The board even gave the people a chance to change their minds on this vote and since there was only a small voice of dissent they made the decision to buy land for a new school. Everything has been dealt with fairly.

We all realize a larger school has its advantages as well as its disadvantages. What we need is a new school NOW. A school at Lewiston would offer our children an education suitable for college entrance. A child's education cannot be measured by pennies saved. It can only be measured by a child's ability to succeed in later life.

Do we have to wait another 3 or 4 years for a new school? Why not move ahead? Our children are suffering because of all this silly bickering.

opened for a mutually helpful relationship between the United States and India. It may prove costly in money to this country, but it is a military maneuver of vast importance to the United States. It could be the means of saving many American boys from another Korean-type war in Asia.

Rancher Drives Herd to Market

HIGHMORE, S.D. (AP) — A team of hardy drovers, borrowing a page from western folklore, headed out at sunup today in sub-zero cold with 550 head of cattle going overland to market.

It was the second leg of a 50-mile trek for rancher Bethel Frei, 47, and his crew of riders, including his two daughters, Betty and Bunny, 12, two sons, John, 15, and Bud, 8, and his father, John, 72, who owns a ranch near his son's.

Frei is moving the Black Angus from a 3,000-acre winter grazing spread that soon will be flooded by backup waters of the Big Bend dam downstream on the Missouri River.

The drive is headed for the live-stock yards at Highmore, north of Frei's spread. The herd is expected to bring about $150,000 after it hits the auction yards here Thursday.

Little snow covers the trail, but biting cold made things uncomfortable. The drive started Tuesday in 22 below zero weather. When the crew halted Tuesday night at the Orville Peterson ranch, after covering more than 20 miles the first day, the temperature had risen to a still frigid -15.

Frei, his family and neighbors helping him on the drive, returned to their homes for hot meals and to spend the night after pasturing the herd.

Frei's spread is located in a pocket adjoining the Missouri

River and surrounded by towering hills and buttes.

After getting out of this pocket, the cattle caught the hang of things and loded on steadily.

Frei is losing all but 640 acres of his 3,000 to the rising waters. The Corps of Engineers already has condemned much of his neighbor's acreage because of the dam project. Frei's winter graze sits on the Crow Creek Indian Reservation.

"I wanted to lease the land back from the engineers," Frei said. "But they said they could only do that for seven months. I can't do anything with a herd of cattle in seven months."

Frei said it was much cheaper moving the cattle overland to market than shipping them by truck. He figured it would cost nearly $2,000 to truck the herd.

Bethel is leading the drive in a pickup truck. The others — about 10 in all — are riding herd on horseback. Grain and hay was shipped ahead to the overnight stops. Axes are used to chop holes in frozen ponds for the animals to get water.

His two young daughters, almost born to the saddle, have been doing a man's work.

Said Bunny: "It gets pretty cold out there. But I'm having a good time."

The Frei are relative newcomers to South Dakota. They moved here from Oklahoma in 1947.

Looking nostalgically toward his herd plodding slowly across the bleak and frozen prairie country, he added:

"About 40 years of my life is represented in that herd."

Two Boys Held in Albert Lea Holdup

NORTHWOOD, Iowa (AP) — Two teen-age boys accused of holding up the manager of a liquor store at Albert Lea, Minn., were captured at a roadblock on Highway 63 near this northern Iowa town Tuesday.

The two, 15 and 16, were being held for juvenile authorities.

Francis Powers Granted Divorce

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga. (AP) — Francis Gary Powers, former U2 pilot who served a prison term in the Soviet Union, was granted a divorce Wednesday.

A Superior Court jury granted Barbara Powers alimony of $5,000. The jury deliberated about half an hour.

Powers charged his wife with habitual intoxication and cruelty. Mrs. Powers filed a countersuit and told the jury that her husband was "not the same" since his return from a Soviet prison.

The marriage of Miss Joan Ann Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Mason, 460 Huff St., and Owen J. Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Schmidt, 1173 W. 4th St., took place Jan. 5 at noon.

The Rev. Donald Connelly performed the ceremony before the altar decorated with red poinsettias and white chrysanthemums at the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart. Cathedral Children's Choir sang the nuptial high Mass and Francis Guy was soloist.

ATTENDANTS were Miss Patricia Mason, Algonquin, Ill., sister of the bride, maid of honor, and Charles Kubicek, cousin of the bridegroom, best man. Garry Schmidt and William Sillman ushered.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of rose patterned brocade with chapel-length train, fashioned with fitted bodice, scoop neckline and three quarter-length sleeves. Tailored bows were used at the waistline of the smooth front and sweep back of the skirt. Her bouffant veil of English silk illusion was held by a crown of pearlized orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

The maid of honor wore a street-length sheath of ruby red satin styled with bateau neckline and elbow-length sleeves. The bell shaped overskirt of matching satin was held by a flat bow at the back. A matching pill box held a draped face veil and she carried white carnations.

A 1 p.m. dinner and reception were held at the Eagles Club where red carnations and white chrysanthemums were used to decorate the tables. Mrs. Joseph Masyska was in charge of the guest book and the Misses Nancy Davidson and Shelia Cunningham opened gifts.

THE BRIDE attended Cotter High School and has been employed at Bailey's. The bridegroom attended Winona Senior High School and is stationed at the Army Air Missile Base, Farmington, Minn. The couple is at home in Northfield, Minn.

Parties were given for the bride-elect by Mrs. Clarence Haines at her home and by Mrs. Charles Kubicek at Lake Park Lodge.

DUNLAP QUESTIONS MARSHALL

Commissioner Backs Down On State Highway Charges

St. Paul (AP)—Highway Commissioner James Marshall, during a questioning session in which he was pumped by sharp cross-examination of lawmakers, said Wednesday there is a danger Minnesota may not be able to match federal highway funds in the future. He added:

"I firmly believe that if we do not match federal funds, the federal government will have a tendency to come in and take over construction of interstate highways."

He backed away, however, under questioning by Sens. Robert Dunlap of Plainview and Donald Sinclair of Stephen.

He said he had not meant to convey the impression that the federal government actually would come into Minnesota to build interstate highways. He said he had referred more to the federal government's action to fix standards for construction and to set speed limits.

The commissioner's appearance at the first meeting of the Senate Highway Committee also was marked by a sharp exchange between him and the committee chairman, Sen. Norman Larson of Ada.

Larson asked why, in spite of numerous promises over the last six years, nothing had been done to improve a 15-mile stretch of highway in his district.

Marshall replied that he had made no promises and could not keep promises made by his predecessors unless he had enough money.

Larson also remarked that it is possible to travel nearly from Fargo to Bismarck in North Dakota over interstate highway and asked why no similar stretches have been completed in Minnesota.

Marshall said none of Minnesota's neighbors have the big city problems Minnesota has and reminded that the interstate program still has 10 years to go. In response to another question, he said all of the state's three large cities—Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth are building interstate type streets and roads on their own.

The commissioner said it is the province of the legislature to determine where additional money — if any — for highways should come from. In response to a question he said a two cents a gallon increase in the gasoline tax would yield an estimated $24 million a year, of which the state trunk highway fund would get 62 per cent. He said revenues available to the Highway Department used to rise at the rate of about four per cent a year, but the rise now is only about two per cent. He blamed, in part, compact cars, improved gasoline mileage generally and diversion of some Minnesota tourist traffic to the world's

Gamehaven Scout Council Cited For Safety Work

ROCHESTER, Minn. — For the fourth year in a row Gamehaven Council, Boy Scouts of America, has been selected as the outstanding council for promoting safety in the state by the Minnesota Safety Council. It was revealed Wednesday night at the council's bi-annual planning session here.

Approximately 150 Scout leaders from the seven-county area attended the meeting at IBM. Dr. Edward Rynearson, Rochester, Scout leader, was guest speaker. Henry Schreiber, Region executive, complimented the council for its 1962 record.

THE COUNCIL has 6,144 registered scouts in the Cub, Scout and Explorer units. This is an increase of 2.7 percent and four units over 1962. A goal of 6,400 boys in 247 units was set for 1963. Sugar Loaf District set its goal at 953 boys.

A budget of $92,000 was projected for 1963. The council ended the year with a balance of $198,500.

A total of 1,430 Scouts from 98 troops participated in long-term camping six or more consecutive days. Eighty-four percent of the council's Scouts are qualified for the national camping award. Sugar Loaf District set its camping goal at 100 percent troop attendance.

Five camporees, five expositions and a fall banquet were held during the year. In addition 27 boys went to Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico and 70 boys and nine leaders went on the wilderness canoe trip. A total of 92 Scouts participated in the canoe derby.

A $90,000 SCOUT service center and office building is being constructed on the beltline south-east of Rochester with occupancy in April. A total of 4,430 merit badges were awarded during the year.

The 53rd anniversary of the Boy Scouts will be held Feb. 7-13 with more than 5 million Scouts dedicating themselves to the Scout oath on Friday, Feb. 8, the birthday of the movement.

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — Students at Whitehall's Memorial School not only had a brief respite from semester tests Wednesday morning but proved the value of the fire drills they have participated in.

An overflow of oil in the burner caused the building to become partially filled with smoke about 9:15 a.m. The building was completely evacuated two minutes after the order to leave the building was given by administrator John Brown. The fire department arrived, burners were checked, the possibility of an explosion erased, and within 25 minutes classes had resumed.

Car Will Not Start Without Battery

EAU CLAIRE, Wis. (P) — Ronald Beaton got up early Tuesday and tried to start his car in 23 degrees below zero weather.

No luck, so he called a wrecker and was pushed for several blocks, and finally gave up. A mechanic lifted the hood—the battery was gone.

Beaton then remembered he had taken it into the basement of his home the night before so it would be warm and ready to go.

Old Blair Home Badly Damaged

BLAIR, Wis. (Special) — Fire of undetermined origin, severely damaged, possibly beyond repair, an old landmark in the city Wednesday.

Firemen were called to the former Ever Lien house on Pearl Street about a block from the business district at 10:45 a.m.

Owner of the structure was Mrs. Amos Kolbe, who purchased it about a year ago from the estate of her father, Ever Lien.

Damage to the interior of the building is extensive, but there was no immediate estimate of the damage.

NO ONE was in the dwelling when the fire was discovered by a neighbor. Mrs. Carol Guskjolen, who saw smoke coming from the living room windows. She tried to warn the two families living there and found no one at home. She then sought help from another neighbor, Ormer Holle, a bachelor, who in turn notified Samford Arneson, a Town of Preston employee, who was in the garage. Arneson placed the call from a service station on Broadway.

Mrs. Guskjolen had seen smoke pouring from the chimney and windows.

The lower apartment was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schultz Sr. and three sons. The upstairs apartment was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Terrence Beatty and two children. Mrs. Schultz, Mrs. Beatty and her mother, Mrs. Roy Mjstlad, had gone to La Crosse for the day. Firemen had to break a large window to get in.

Early in its fight, the fire department was hampered by heavy smoke.

TWO PET DOGS, Chico, owned by Schultz, and Rusty, belonging to the Beattys, suffocated from the smoke.

It was not until 2 p.m. that firemen termed the blaze under control. Much of the furniture on both floors, although somewhat water soaked, was removed and stored in vacant buildings.

Schultz is employed as a car salesman for Kolve Chevrolet, Inc. Mrs. Beatty works part time as a beautician. Her husband is employed at Beatty's Egg Station.

Bonnie Lynn Bakery served coffee and doughnuts to the fire fighters.

Mrs. Kolve said the building was insured.

Whitehall Council Appoints Woman

WHITEHALL, Wis. (Special) — Mrs. John Gilbertson was appointed to the library board at the meeting of the Common Council Monday evening. She replaces Mrs. Glen Olson, who has moved out of the city.

Appointments of Louie Boehm as fire chief and Fred Gardner as secretary-treasurer of the fire company were approved. Floyd Dahl is a new fireman.

It was announced the annual fireman's dance, held in the city each spring for years, is a thing of the past. Receipts were used to help pay the men. The decision to drop it was based partly on the fact there is no place to hold the dance. The city will meet the quarterly payrolls through the budget set up for the fire company. It also was announced that work will have to be done on one of the water softeners in the old plant.

The new snowplow, purchased by the city, is in operation. It's a blade attached to one of the city trucks.

TAG MATCH FEATURES CARNIVAL WRESTLING

Kalmikoffs to Test Evans' Strength

The Winona Winter Carnival's professional wrestling card Friday night will feature one of the biggest men in the sport.

Moose Evans, who will wrestle with Jack Lanza in a tag match against the Kalmikoff brothers, is 6-9 and weighs 330 pounds.

Although the big man has only been wrestling five years as a professional, he is the current holder of the Southern Heavyweight championship.

Moose, as he is affectionately called by his fans, depends not only on his wrestling ability, but also on his tremendous strength gained through weight-lifting. He works out daily with a 500-pound set of weights which he carries with him everywhere he goes.

Evans also credits much of his phenomenal strength to the two years he spent in the lumber camps in upper New York State.

Unlike some of his professional cohorts, Moose is a personable guy who likes to play baseball, basketball and golf. He also reads the Wall Street Journal daily.

So—keep your eye on Moose Evans, the best of the big men. Along with the tag-match main event will be a semi-final event featuring Rocky Hamilton and Doug Gilbert.

Then a special bout will bring back Ivan Kalmikoff against Jack Lanza.

First match Friday starts at 8:10 p.m. to allow shoppers time to get to Memorial Hall. Downtown stores are open until 9 p.m.

Admission to the wrestling card is by Winter Carnival Button only, said Jim Mohan. Buttons will be on sale at the gymnasium.

Kids' Carnival Fishing Contest Set for Sunday

The once-postponed Winter Carnival children's ice fishing derby will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, the Park-Recreation Board has announced.

Cold weather last Sunday forced a change in date when too few contestants showed up to have the elements.

The location is at the foot of Franklin Street and registration begins at 1 p.m. at the Park-Recreation maintenance building nearby. Contest hours are from 2 to 4 p.m. Boys and girls under 16 are eligible.

Prizes will be given for three heaviest fish, including crappie, sunfish, perch and pike; youngest girl and boy fishermen; boy and girl catching first fish.

Attendance prizes will be awarded throughout the contest. The grand attendance award, a $25 savings bond, will be presented at 4 p.m.

Children may be accompanied and assisted by their parents.

GUEST AT WINONA LUNCHEON

Battey Laments Lack of Homers

By AUGIE KARCHER
Daily News Sports Editor

Earl Battey of the Minnesota Twins likes it in Minnesota and hopes that he'll be around for a long time.

Dismissing talk that he might be traded, Battey says "that was one reason he received and signed his contract early."

BATTEY WAS in Winona Wednesday and guest at a luncheon attended by various Winona city officials at Shorty's Hiawatha Room. The star receiver is doing promotion work in the off-season for a glass company which has a contract on the new Winona post office.

"There was a lot of talk in St. Paul that I might be traded, but I've been doing a lot of youth work in St. Paul and the people there would hate to see me go," said Battey. He implied that Cal Griffith and he settled his contract quickly to halt the talk.

Battey, a personable young man who achieved great popularity in two seasons behind the plate, is just as affable over a dinner plate.

HE ACCEPTED compliments of his well-wishers graciously but hinted he wishes he could improve on his home run ball. He batted .280 in 1962 and hit 11 round-trippers according to Twins' statistics, but said here he had 12 out of the park.

"That creak protector doesn't bother your hitting any, does it?" asked one admirer. "It doesn't help it either," Battey quickly shot back.

"I've had a record for head concussions—four of them, all in baseball," said Earl. "Maybe that's why they call me Battey."

THE TWINS star, who was cited by Jack Frost XIII Chuck Green as "Royal Catcher of the Ball," said he thought the recent White Sox-Baltimore trade would favor the Orioles right now. "If Pete Ward (third baseman) comes through, it will favor the White Sox," said Battey. "They got the youth in their favor."

Battey, who celebrated his 28th birthday just two weeks ago, visited Winona State College and Winona Senior High and Cotter High during his day in Winona.

Tuttle Signs '63 Twins Contract

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Veteran outfielder Bill Tuttle was one of three players to sign 1963 contracts with the Minnesota Twins Wednesday.

Others were shortstop Orlando Martinez, on the reserve list, as is Tuttle, and Garry Roggenburg, a rookie pitcher.

Tuttle, 33, had a .210 batting mark in 110 games last season, while the 21-year-old Martinez was .167 in 37.

Roggenburg, signed last June from Dayton University, played with Eric in the New York-Pennsylvania loop last season, for a 13-14 mound record. But he led the league with an earned run average of 2.07.

Owner Cal Griffith of the Twins took a calculated risk in drafting young Keller, a first baseman, from the New York Yankees.

Richmond farm club of the International League. If the sturdy young slugger—the hit 36 home runs and drove in 300 runs in four minor league seasons—has recovered from the second of two back operations, he could be the left-handed savior for whom the Twins have been searching.

McCabe is counted upon to become the Twins' first string catcher of the future. The 24-year-old Purdue bonus boy batted .309 at Vancouver last year before entering the Army.

"McCabe looks like a major league hitter right now," said Del Wilber, chief Minnesota scout.

At 21 years old, left-handed, he had a 6-10 record at Vancouver but a number of his losses were low-run games. Roggenburg, a 6-6 southpaw who once led Dayton U. to the National Invitation Tournament basketball championship, came off the campus last June to lead the New York-Penn League with a 2.07 earned run percentage. He won 13, lost 4 and fanned 149 in 118 innings with

Post Fifth MIAC Verdict

ST. PAUL (Special)—St. Mary's exploded for four goals in the third period here Wednesday night to defeat Concordia for the second time this season, 6-2 in an MIAC hockey game at Aldrich Arena.

The victory moved the Redmen sixth to a 3-2-1 conference record and 6-2-1 overall. Earlier this year they had battered the Cobbers 15-3.

Augsburg beat Macalester 4-3 in overtime to leave the Scots, St. Thomas and St. Mary's fighting for the top of the heap, each with two defeats.

DON BERRIGAN of St. Mary's scored the three-goal hat trick and Andre Beaulieu added four points to push his league-leading total to 25 for eight games.

The Redmen entertain Carleton at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in a non-league game before taking a week's layoff. They have six MIAC games left, starting at St. John's Jan. 26.

Concordia's Bill Donley scored the first goal Wednesday night at 3:39. St. Mary's came back on shots by Beaulieu and Berrigan at 6:55 and 7:52 for a 2-1 lead that stood until the 6:17 mark of the third period.

Berrigan scored that one with assists from Beaulieu and Bob Paradise and 48 seconds later completed his hat trick with Bob Magnusson and a power play assist.

After Donley recorded the Cobbers' second goal, Beaulieu and Magnusson scored again to wrap it up.

Coach Max Mock credited Redmen goalie Fritz Kokesch with a spectacular save in the second period when the game was still undecided. "He was down on the ice and just reached up and caught one as he went by him," lauded Mock.

St. Thomas defeated St. John's 4-3 in another MIAC game Wednesday.

RUSSELL MVP

Big 'O' Sparks East to Victory

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The East congratulated itself with utmost justification today on its 115-108 victory over the West in the National Basketball Association's annual All-Star game.

Many called it an upset. But the way things turned out, this was no upset. Someone just picked the wrong favorite. And it irritated the East something awful.

What happened was that Oscar Robertson, Bill Russell and a host of less renowned pros of the East simply ran, passed and scored the pantaloons off the West. "I never had an easier game," said the East's coach, Red Auerbach.

The East opened the scoring on a basket by Tom Heinsohn of Auerbach's Boston Celtics and was never tied nor behind from there on.

At halftime it was 56-50, and the score was much closer than the contest. For example, 3 minutes and 20 seconds before that buzzer the West's great Elgin Baylor had scored his first and only field goal of the entire first half.

Robertson went on to lead the East in scoring with 21 points. Russell, who had 19, bottled up the West attack and won the Most-Valuable-Player award for the evening.

The shining light for the West was Bob Pettit, with a game high of 25 points. This was the veteran St. Louis Hawk's 10th All-Star game.

The thing that shocked the local boosters among the crowd of 14,838 was the rigid performance of Baylor and Jerry West of the Los Angeles Lakers.

Baylor sank but 4 out of 15 field goal attempts, and 9 of 13 free throws for a total of 17 points.

West hit on 5 out of 15 field goal tries and 3 out of 4 free shots for 13 points.

The West's coach, Fred Schaus of the Lakers, observed: "Bill Russell dominated both boards. We did a good job on Bill Chamberlain."

Russell and Robertson were by no means the whole show for the winners. Time and again when the West seemed inclined to sneak into threatening range, the lesser lights would come through.

Included were Jack Twyman of Cincinnati, John Green of New York, and Syracuse's Lee Shaffer, John Kerr and Hal Greer.

And Bob Cousy, Boston's star and the only man to play in all 13 of these All-Star attractions, made this, his last one, a fitting farewell. His ball handling and rifle passes were as precise as ever.

Junior Ski Meet Here Sunday

A ski event, including both jumping and downhill racing, will be staged Sunday as a feature of the Winona Winter Carnival.

This is the second year for the event on the Carnival program. Site will be the George Goetzman farm on the East Burns Valley Road.

Competition is open to all boys and girls 18 years and under.

Entries may be made when registering at the site. The meet is to start at 9 a.m.

A special Winter Carnival skiing emblem will be awarded winners in boys downhill, girls downhill, boys jumping and girls jumping, said Lambert Hamer, ski chairman for the event.

The Goetzman farm has long been a mecca for Winona ski enthusiasts. Goetzman this year has made several improvements, including a 700-foot rope tow, operated with power from a farm tractor.

The jumping scaffold is for jumps of about 50 to 60 feet and the in-run is packed with snow—of which there is ample.

There is no entry fee for the Carnival meet.

Jim Bambenek Jr., 429 1/2 Mankato Ave., is assisting in arrangements and may be contacted for further information.

Palmer, Player Warm Up for Crosby Open

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Arnold Palmer and Gary Player, respective winners of the year's first two tournaments and firing sub-par practice rounds here, were early favorites as Bing Crosby's 22nd National Pro-Amateur golf tournament opened today.

Neither Palmer, leading money winner in the last decade of golf, nor Player, the sharp-shooting star from South Africa, has captured this $50,000 event previously. Yet both are currently scoring far better than Doug Ford, the New Yorker who won here last year in a one-hole playoff against Joe Campbell.

The lean Palmer toured Pebble Beach in a final warmup Wednesday in 5-under-par 65.

Palmer practiced this week on all three of the Peninsula courses being played in the Crosby competition—Pebble Beach, Cypress Point and the Monterey Peninsula Country Club.

Six Bowlers Hit 600 in 6 Leagues

Six Winona bowling leagues each produced one 600 total Wednesday night, topped by a 638 score at Keglers Lanes and a 267 game at Westgate Bowl.

Vernon Bunke bagged the 638 in the Merchants League bowling for Rushford Bottling. He had a 227 single and led the Bottlers to 970-2,825.

Soph Buntin Leads Big Ten In Five Races

CHICAGO (AP)—Sophomore Bill Buntin of Michigan is beginning to hog Big Ten statistics with leadership in five categories.

Buntin, according to conference figures today, is tops after four games in field goal attempts 88, field goals 41, free throw attempts 32, free throws 21 and rebounds 62.

The scoring leader, however, is Indiana's Jimmy Rayl with a 34.5 average in two league games. Based on average, Gary Bradds of Ohio State is No. 2 with 31.0 and Buntin No. 3 with 25.8. The list drops after that to 21.0 for Rich Falk of Northwestern.

Other leaders include: Field goal percentage—Tom Bolyard, Indiana, 15 of 21 for .714; free throw percentage—Bill Sam, Illinois, 14 for 14.000.

Illinois, with a 4.0 conference record and ranked third nationally, is among teams idle this weekend because of exams. The Illini's hairbreadth 78-76 victory over Northwestern Monday was the eighth time in 13 games they have scored more than 50 points in the second half, and the fifth time they came from behind at the half to win. For the season Illinois 12-1 has averaged 37.9 points in the first half and 50.7 in the second.

Leaders in team statistics averages: Offense—Indiana 90.3 and Illinois 89.8; defense—Ohio State 66.3 and Wisconsin 68.7; rebounds—Illinois 50 and Michigan 41.5; field goal percentage—Indiana .457; Minnesota .407; free throw percentage—Illinois .837 and Michigan .789.

Grambling Holds Cage Leadership

Grambling, La., College maintained its position as the nation's top-ranked small college basketball team in the weekly Associated Press poll Thursday after posting a pair of victories last week.

Averaging close to 100 points per game, the Tigers boosted their won-loss record to 14-1. The ballot of eight members of the AP's regional board of selectors is based on results of games through Saturday, Jan. 12.

Grambling received two first place votes and collected 55 points. Wittenberg, Ohio, was right on the heels of the leaders with 53 points and 10 victories in 11 games. The Ohioans were third a week ago.

Karras rekindled interest in the probe, which had been out of the headlines for the past few days, by admitting on television interviews Wednesday that he had bet on football games, including those he played in, although he said his wagers were limited to "a pack of cigarettes or a couple of cigars."

News of the first interview, taped Sunday by NBC for a Wednesday newscast, apparently prompted Rozelle to summon the big tackle to the commissioner's New York office for an explanation.

Bradley Aims For Cincinnati Win Streak

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cincinnati moves into the lion's den tonight. The lion is worried.

The top-ranked Bearcats, unbeaten in 31 basketball games dating back to the last time they stepped into Bradley's lair at Peoria, Ill., will be out to dip the lion's tail tonight and snap a five-year losing string at the Bradley home court.

Regarding Bradley's chances of maintaining its superiority over Cincinnati at Peoria, Braves' coach Chuck Osborne figured out his team's chances this way:

"For us to win, it would take our best shooting of the year, we would have to be close to breaking even on the boards, give our best defensive performance, and have some good luck."

Cincinnati Assistant Coach Ty Baker, who scouted Bradley Tuesday, isn't concerned about lions carrying rabbi's feet, even at Peoria.

"I think that Bradley can be beaten there," he said. "I've seen them beaten at Peoria. We have no fear or apprehension about playing up there, but we'll have to have an outstanding effort to win."

It'll be a tough Missouri Valley Conference test for Cincinnati, 13-0 this season and all-conquering since a 70-58 overtime loss to Bradley at Peoria, Jan. 10, last year. In five games over the last five years, the Bearcats have been unable to beat the Braves on their home floor.

One home court string went by the boards Wednesday night when Furman knocked off Virginia Tech 68-61 in a Southern Conference game, ending the Gobblers' 41-game home victory streak dating back to Feb. 7, 1958.

In other conference activity, North Carolina edged North Carolina State 67-65 in an Atlantic Coast game. Harvard defeated Dartmouth 59-55 in an Ivy League clash and Morehead beat Western Kentucky 87-71 in the Ohio Valley.

Elsewhere, ninth-ranked West Virginia whipped Penn State 89-73. DePaul belted Notre Dame 83-69 and Louisville defeated Xavier, Ohio 75-66.

Nick Werkmann, the nation's top scorer, hit for 40 points in Seton Hall's 93-91 squeaker over Fairfield, Holy Cross thumped Amherst 76-59, and Georgetown beat Navy 83-71.

SLICED TEE SHOT DOWNS SQUIRREL

Bruins Rally To Clip Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—The last-place Boston Bruins must have the whammy sign on the Chicago Black Hawks, National Hockey League leaders.

The Bruins scored twice in a last period rally Wednesday night to win 5-4 and beat the Hawks for the second time in a row.

Warren Godfrey and Guy Gendron each scored in the final to overcome a 4-3 Chicago lead and give Boston its eighth victory of the season.

Chicago remains two points ahead of the Toronto Maple Leafs, who are at Montreal tonight while Boston is at Detroit.

Lion, Cowboy Tilt To Be Postponed

DENVER (AP)—An Air Force Academy spokesman says a Sept. 8 pre-season game at Falcon Stadium between the Detroit Lions and the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League will be re-scheduled if possible.

Announcement of the scheduling of the game Tuesday brought angry words from Calvin Kunz, president of the rival American Football League's Denver Broncos. The Broncos have their season opener slated for the same day at Denver, about 60 miles north of the Academy.

Negro Boy, 15, Identified as Boston Strangler

BOSTON (AP)—Police Commissioner Edmund L. McNamara said today a 15-year-old boy has been identified as the strangler of a 16-year-old Roxbury girl on Jan. 5.

McNamara said the Negro youth was one of four questioned at headquarters for several hours. He said the youth will be arraigned in Roxbury District Court on a charge of being a delinquent child.

McNamara said the accused youth has denied any connection with the slaying.

The commissioner said the boy who identified the accused youth admitted being in the alley when the girl was slain.

The body of Danielle Saunders was found in an alley not far from her home in the Roxbury District the night of Jan. 5.

She was the ninth female strangling victim in Greater Boston in the past seven months. None of the slayings has been solved.

Lobbyists in Legislature Must Register

ST. PAUL (AP) — Both houses of the Minnesota Legislature are operating today under a rule requiring all those who wish to appear before legislative committees to advocate or oppose legislation to register.

Under the rule, lobbyists must report the names of their employers and list the subjects in connection with which they expect to try to influence legislators.

The Senate rule was adopted in 1959 and more than 800 lobbyists registered under it during the 1961 session.

The House rule was adopted Tuesday after defeat of an amendment that would have required lobbyists to report their salaries and expenditures.

The amendment proposed earlier in the session by Rep. Fred Cina of Aurora, minority leader, was submitted Tuesday by a conservative, Walter Kalus of Farmington.

Twelve conservatives voted for the amendment along with 49 liberals. Three liberals left their group to vote against the amendment.

Adoption by both houses of the registration rule is regarded as a partial victory by those who have fought for many years to enact a lobbyist registration law. They have indicated that the fight will go on, however, because they feel the rule is not an adequate substitute for a law and does not go far enough. They have been demanding a law with "teeth" but sponsors of the rule say stiffer requirements would be difficult to enforce.

While the House was adopting overall rules, including the registration rule, the Senate Labor Committee began consideration of the unemployment insurance problem.

Otto Christenson, executive vice president of the Minnesota Employers Association, told the committee the fund has shrunk to $33.8 million dollars and is in danger of going broke. He said the fund should have a reserve of about $72 million to be safe to meet a serious unemployment situation.

The fund, used to pay unemployment benefits, is built up entirely by contributions from employers of a percentage of their payroll.

Christenson said rates must be raised enough to produce $21.7 million more each year even if benefits are not increased.

He presented a plan which would raise the balance in the fund to $72 million in about six years. He said if benefits are increased employers will be asked to contribute more.

The Employers Association executive said Minnesota is not "unfairly liberal" in its benefit allowances and that average rates paid by Minnesota employers are low compared with other states.

Minnesota maximum benefits are $38 a week for a maximum of 26 weeks.

Neither benefit schedules nor employers' contribution rates were changed by the last two legislatures because the liberal House and the conservative Senate were unable to compromise differing bills that were passed.

Christenson said that if this legislature does not act and the fund goes broke, costly borrowing will be necessary to continue unemployment benefit payments.
